NATIONAL ROLLER DERBY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Ms SONIA HORNERY ( Wallsend ) ( 13:11 ):

Recently five local skaters represented New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory in the inaugural National Roller Derby Championships at Morayfield, Queensland.

After three days of tough competition, I am pleased to announce that New South Wales and Australian Capital Territory team members were crowned as national champions and came away undefeated. They defeated South Australia in the final, with 330 points to 145.

This is a fantastic effort from a dedicated group that trains hard in a local school hall twice a week and travels to the Central Coast, Western Sydney and Katoomba to get competitive bouts.

I congratulate Owen Squires, Jack Morris, Abi Morris, Maddi Jurd and Sammi Jurd on being crowned national champions.
